

Shall we stick by each other as long as we live?
Will you give me yourself? Will you come travel with me?
I give you myself, before preaching or law;
I give you my love, more precious than money,
My infant! I give you my hand!

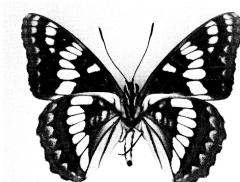

1a

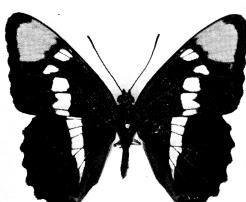

1b

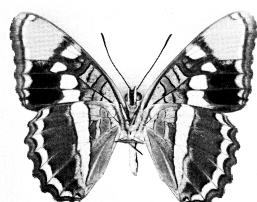

2a

2b

3a

3b

Fig 1. Limenitis weidemeyerii latifascia. Male, (a) upperside, (b) underside. Millcreek Cr., Salt Lake Co., Utah

Fig 2. Limenitis lorquini burrisoni. Male, (a) upperside, (b) underside. McDonald Fst., Benton Co., Oregon

Fig 3. Adelpha bredowii californica. Female, (a) upperside, (b) underside. Tubb Springs, Jackson Co., Oregon

Gregory Ernst Maurer

and

Laurel Vanessa LeGate

invite you to their jubilant, summer wedding,

Saturday, July 25th, 2009.

Ceremony:

The banks of Jump Off Joe Creek, Jackson County, Oregon

10:00am

Reception:

Harper's Restaurant, Ashland, Oregon

4:00pm

RSVP:

growlerwedding@gmail.com or 801 716 0293

to wear something you can wash easily.

Summer attire – sundresses, slacks, shorts, sandals. Dress up a little, but be practical. Wear comfortable shoes in the event of a flat tire, and so that you can more easily explore before and after the ceremony. In July, Jump Off Joe Creek Road is quite dusty, so you will want

Where is this wedding and how do we get there?

The day before activities will include preparation for the reception in Ashland in the afternoon, and for those who wish to attend, a bonfire and party up at the cabin that night.

The ceremony will take place in the late morning in a small clearing on Jump Off Joe Creek, approximately 20 minutes off the pavement on a very rough, rocky road on land Laurel's family owns. Should you need a ride up the dirt road, please let us know when you RSVP and we will arrange to pick you up.

The reception will take place in Ashland, Oregon in the late afternoon at Harper's, a restaurant Greg's Aunt Kathie and Uncle Paul own.

Where should we stay?

The ceremony and reception will be held at the cabin that night. There is a simple website with more info and maps:

Where should we stay?

Please see the enclosed maps for more specific directions. We also have a simple website with more info and maps:
<http://primaryproductivity.org/wedding>.

While Laurel and Greg hope that their guests will be able to attend both the ceremony and the reception, they encourage anyone wary of driving an unmaintained logging road, having no electricity or of spending a day in the woods, to join them for the evening celebration in Ashland, about one hour, 15 minutes away.

There will be a pancake brunch up at the cabin at noon on Sunday.

The reception will take place in Ashland, Oregon in the late afternoon at Harper's, a restaurant Greg's Aunt Kathie and Uncle Paul own.

The ceremony will take place in the late morning in a small clearing on Jump Off Joe Creek, approximately 20 minutes off the pavement on a very rough, rocky road on land Laurel's family owns. Should you need a ride up the dirt road, please let us know when you RSVP and we will arrange to pick you up.

Where is this wedding and how do we get there?

The day before activities will include preparation for the reception in Ashland in the afternoon, and for those who wish to attend, a bonfire and party up at the cabin that night.

Ashland offers luxurious lodging opportunities, delicious restaurants, and is very "walkable". Great hiking, biking, and camping are available in the area. For information about the Oregon Shakespeare Festival (OSF), visit www.osfashland.org.

Ashland is home of the Oregon Shakespeare Festival and it attracts many tourists each summer. If you plan on staying in Ashland, book early. Laurel and Greg have reserved blocks of rooms at the Ashland Super 8 (41 482-8887), Econolodge (41 482-4700 Confirmation #70513963), and Ashland Knights Inn (800-547-4566 Confirmation #NP8041), in anticipation of there being fewer and fewer vacancies averages $90 per day. We will cancel the unused reservations on July 4, 2009.

in Ashland as the summer approaches. Call directly and ask for the July 25th Legate-Maurer Room Reservation. Double occupancy from the Hugo Exit to where the pavement ends, and then 3 miles on dirt to the cabin.

Grants Pass is also a nice campground, cabins, and RV park, just off I-5 Hugo Exit 66 (www.josecrekiv.com). It's about 7 miles from the reception. There is a mid-point between the site of the ceremony and the site of Grants Pass. Available in late July should be fairly decent. Grants Pass is a mid-point between the site of the ceremony and the site of Grants Pass. Availability in Grants Pass is a variety of high and low-cost lodging in Grants Pass is the closest city. It is about 45 minutes away from the site of the ceremony. There is a variety of high and low-cost lodging

Option #2: Grants Pass and Joe Creek Waterfalls RV Resort

Grants Pass is the closest city. It is about 45 minutes away from the site of the ceremony. Please indicate if you plan on camping at Joe Creek when you RSVP. Please see the enclosed maps for more specific directions. We also have a simple website with more info and maps:

Option #1: Tent or Camper City